Official Communication of the Organizing Committee of the UCLV 2017 Convention
October 23-27, 2017
Hotel Meliá "Marina Varadero"
Varadero, Matanzas

The Organizing Committee, is pleased to inform all participants in UCLV 2017 Convention, that the working sessions will be held at the Hotel Meliá "Marina Varadero", located in Punta Hicacos, Varadero, Province of Matanzas, which has the ideal conditions for a pleasant stay (For any complementary information visit the official website: www.melia-marinavaradero.com)

Tourist packages for delegates and participants are available at Gaviota Tours Agency, official tour operator of the event. We encourage you to contact us in order to coordinate the mobility and accommodation required to ensure your participation. (Business Specialist, Lic. Andy Yunior Vicente Aguilar, email: eventos.ventas@gaviotatours.cu).

The Organizing Committee also agreed to extend, until October 23, the possibility to pay the registration fees, either online or in cash, without additional charges.

The attendance of delegates from 16 countries has been confirmed. A Cuban delegation from the academic, scientific and business sectors, will also participate actively in the working sessions of the 14 sub-events convened this time.

We reiterate our most sincere apologies for the inconveniences occurred after the passing of Hurricane Irma that affected several provinces of the country.

The opening ceremony will be held at the University Theater of our Higher Education Center on October 23 at 12:30 pm.

Annexed to this communication you will have the opportunity to check the general program of the Convention.

Fraternally,
Organizing Committee
UCLV 2017 Convention
